

BIS CONSUMER GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL MECHANISM & FAQs

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ON ISI, HALLMARKING & PRODUCT COMPLAINTS

TOP CONSUMER FAQs

Q1. What is an ISI mark and why is it important?

The ISI mark is the official third-party quality certification mark of BIS. It certifies that the product has undergone rigorous laboratory testing and meets all safety, reliability, and quality parameters specified in the applicable Indian Standard.

Q2. Can a jeweller sell non-hallmarked gold jewellery in a notified district?

No. Selling non-hallmarked gold jewellery in designated mandatory hallmarking districts is a statutory offence under Section 29 of the BIS Act 2016, punishable with fine up to 5 times the value of the article or imprisonment up to 1 year.

Q3. Can an individual get personal gold jewellery tested for purity?

Yes. A consumer can get personal gold jewellery tested at any BIS recognized Assaying & Hallmarking Centre (AHC) upon paying a nominal fee of Rs 45 per article (+ GST). The AHC issues an official assay test report to the consumer.

Q4. What should a consumer do if an ISI-marked appliance fails prematurely?

File a grievance on the BIS Care App with purchase receipt. BIS investigates the manufacturer, draws batch test samples, and directs replacement or refund if product is found non-conforming.
