

BIS (CONFORMITY ASSESSMENT) REGULATIONS, 2018

REGULATION NOTIFIED ON 4 JUNE 2018 (AMENDED 2021 & 2023)

These regulations define the comprehensive operational framework for granting conformity assessment licenses and certificates of conformity across Indian products and services.

SCHEMES OF CONFORMITY ASSESSMENT (SCHEDULE II)

Scheme Identifier	Scheme Name & Scope	Key Assessment Mechanism	Standard Mark Used
Scheme - I	Product Certification Scheme (ISI Mark)	Factory Audit + In-house Lab + Independent Testing	ISI Standard Mark (with CM/L number)
Scheme - II	Compulsory Registration Scheme (CRS)	Self-Declaration + NABL/BIS Lab Test Report	CRS Registration Mark (with R-number)
Scheme - IV	Batch / Lot Inspection Scheme	Sampling of specific consignment + Lab Testing	Certificate of Conformity (CoC) per Lot
Scheme - X	Modular / Capital Goods Assessment	Design Approval + Factory Production Control	Standard Mark for Industrial Machinery

REGULATION 4: GRANT, RENEWAL AND SUSPENSION OF LICENCE

- Option 1 (Normal Procedure): Verification visit conducted by BIS auditor, factory samples drawn and tested in BIS/recognized lab before licence is granted. Timeline: 60-90 days.
- Option 2 (Simplified Procedure): Applicant submits valid independent test report from BIS recognized lab with application. Verification audit conducted within 30 days. Licence granted quickly for non-critical products.

REGULATION 7 & 8: SURVEILLANCE AND MARKING CONTROL

Every licensee is subject to regular factory surveillance audits and drawing of market surveillance samples to verify sustained compliance with the Indian Standard.

- Stop-Marking Direction: If surveillance samples fail critical safety parameters, BIS issues immediate stop-marking orders until corrective actions are validated.
- Cancellation of Licence: Continued non-conformity, failure to pay marking fee, or fraudulent use results in immediate revocation under Regulation 11.

REGULATION 10: FEE CONCESSIONS & MSME BENEFITS

Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) holding Udyam Registration, DPIIT-recognized Startups, and Women Entrepreneurs are entitled to special marking fee concessions (up to 50% on application and minimum marking fees).
